

National Chiayi University, Department of History and

Geography Curriculum Planning Committee set up points

89 years on Nov. 6 by the appropriate department

1. The department is conducting curriculum planning and development, we established a curriculum planning committee (hereinafter referred to as the Committee).
2. The Committee consists of members of the three (or more) composition, and select one as a convener, members of the term of one year.
3. The Committee is responsible for planning and preliminary review of the department curriculum, courses and related auxiliary systems degree program courses, planning to send the results of department meeting.
4. The Committee held a meeting of each academic year at least once, if necessary, I may invite the following stakeholders.
5. The committee convened to half (or more) members may only attend the opening meeting, the Conference of the resolution to more than half the members present agreed to become established.
6. The main points adopted by the Department of Finance, Mr President, please be implemented after approval of their revisions.