Ⅱ 在課堂上針對以下主題做分組報告 (50%)

A survey I've conducted

- 1. Prepare a 3 to 4-minute individual speech and make a PowerPoint presentation. Your speech should include:
 - ✓ The aim of your survey (reasons for conducting it)
 - ✓ How you conducted the survey (explanation of how data was collected)

- ✓ An attempt to connect with the audience, for example, a lead rhetorical question or a fact or statistic, etc
- ✓ Basic information about the respondents in your survey (telling a about the type of people you included in it)
- ✓ A summary of the results of your survey
- ✓ Explanation of your data (What the data says about the question(s) you've asked)
- 2. Prepare Powerpoint slides displaying what (data) you have collected. You may use whole numbers, percentages, and fractions. You are required to include at least one chart, table or graphic illustration that you prepared yourself.
- 3. Be sure not to clutter slides with data and text. For slides not including graphics, use 'The Rule of Six' or '1-6-6 Rule' which is that each of your slides includes one idea, should contain no more than six bullets and have no more than six words per bullet. An example:

'The 1-6-6 Rule' or 'Rule of 6'

- Have only one idea per slide.
- · Have, at most, six bullet points.
- · Maximum six words per bullet point.
- · This slide has six bullet points.
- · Each bullet point has six words.
- ✓ Use no more than 12 slides.
- ✓ Use only one font on slides.
- ✓ Make every effort to present without reading slides word-for-word.
- ✓ For further information useful to putting PowerPoint presentations slide together, see http://www.ismrm.org/03/ppguide.htm
- ✓ Unit 2 in the "Present Yourself 2: Viewpoints" textbook provides a number of useful terms, tips and sentence patterns for presentations surveys. It's a valuable resource for putting your presentations together.
- ✓ Feel free to include photos you've taken when conducting your survey. If you collect information online, you are more than welcome to show screen captures of the survey that you've taken.
- 4. While you are encouraged to use any software you are familiar with to construct graphs and charts (Excel, for example), the following are user-friendly options:
 - A. https://zh.surveymonkey.com/ (Survey Monkey)
 - B. http://google.about.com/od/toolsfortheoffice/ss/forms_googledoc.htm (Google Docs)
- 5. All charts must be labeled in English. Bilingual charts are acceptable.
- 6. Be sure to include accurate usage of English 'signaling' or 'signposting to let the audience know where you are at all times of your presentation (at transitions, etc). The following include some basic signpost words:
 - A. http://www.sagepub.com/redman/8.2.pdf

B. http://janinakuh.tripod.com/sitebuildercontent/sitebuilderfiles/pressignposts.pdf

See the example model at the bottom of the page 3 for ideas.

7. You will be evaluated on the following criteria. Look it over so you know exactly how you will be evaluated:

DELIVERY	RATING	COMMENTS
Clarity (pronunciation/volume)	20
Relating to Audience (gestures/eye contact)	15
Adherence to Time Limit	10
CONTENT	RATING	COMMENTS
Structure/Logic	30
Signposting	10
Visual Aids	15
