

Science Carnival at the Jhih-Hang Elementary School, Chiayi City (06/08/2016)

The freshmen from the Department of Chemistry, National Chiayi University, helped the students of the Jhih-Huang elementary school to explore science activities. We provided materials needed for these activities. Those hands-on activities made students more interest in learning science.

