

Instruction Technology and Mathematics Education

Course Goals

1. Understanding the impacts of technology, including graphing calculator, computer teaching software and computer, to mathematics education.
2. Knowing how to look for and integrate the technology into the mathematics teaching and learning.
3. Reviewing the literatures which related to technology and mathematics education.
4. Learning how to design the activities which integrate technology into mathematics learning.