

Multi-culture and Mathematics Education

Through reading, writing, sharing, and discussion, guide graduate students understand the spirit, principles and contents of multicultural education, and to realize the relation and interaction among multicultural education, mathematics learning, mathematics teaching, and teacher education.