

Management in Science Classroom

The course plans to explore the knowledge and skills about classroom management in science class. The range and contents include the theories and strategies of classroom management, the management in science laboratory, the differences of classroom management between science lessons and other lessons, the interaction between the teacher and students, the teachers' and students' emotional management, peer culture, gender and classroom management, punishment and behavior management ...etc.