

Internet Instruction of Computer Multimedia

This curriculum's goal is provides the students the computer multimedia knowledge, the multimedia introductions and the use, the multimedia hardware introduces and the installment, knew that multimedia the sounds, the design, the phantom and so on and coordinate the introduction Internet knowledge, the network to introduce and the use, the network construction, the network server installment, the network erect. Let the students understand that processes the information using the computer, to solve the problem, the spread knowledge and the effective utilization electron information, provides the student in the information society's elementary knowledge.